Ordinance # 95-3
Rural Home Addressing

An ordinance to amend the code of Brookings County, South Dakota, by adding thereto a provision for numbering buildings and to provide punishment for failure to do so.

Be it ordained by the County Commission of Brookings County, South Dakota, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, as follows:

That the Code of Brookings County, South Dakota, be amended by adding thereto the following to be known as Brookings County Ordinance Number 3.

1. Designation of Addresses

- A. Addresses for dwelling units and places of business on all public and private streets located outside the incorporated limits of any municipality shall be assigned by the Brookings County Zoning Officer in accordance with the procedures adopted by Brookings County.
- B. The Brookings County Zoning Officer shall keep a record of all numbers assigned under this ordinance.

2. Posting of Designated Addresses

- A. The owner or occupant or person in charge of any house or building to which an address has been assigned will be notified by Brookings County or an authorized agent of Brookings County of the address assigned to the same.
- B. Within sixty (60) days after the receipt of such notification, or within sixty (60) days of the passage of this ordinance, the owner or occupant or person in charge of the structure to which an address has been assigned shall affix the address to the structure, if visible from the road, or to a sign or number post if not visible from the road, in such a way that the address can be clearly seen from the roadway.
- C. It shall be the duty of such owner or occupant or person in charge thereof upon affixing the new number to remove any different number which might be mistaken for, or confused with, the number assigned to said structure by Brookings County, or an authorized agent of Brookings County.
- D. Each principle building shall display the address assigned to the frontage on which the front entrance is located. In case a principle building is occupied by more than one business or family dwelling unit, each separate dwelling or unit must display a separate address.
- E. Numbers and/or letters indicating the official address for each principle building or each front entrance to such building shall be posted in a manner as to be legible and distinguishable from the street on which the property is located, with letters painted or applied, of a contrasting color to the background, of not less than three inches (3") in height. If a building or dwelling is situated in such a way that the address can not be easily seen from the roadway in front of said structure then a sign or address post must be used in front of the structure or at the entrance of the primary driveway and placed in such a way that it can easily be seen from the roadway.

3. New Structures

- A. Before a new structure is occupied, a permanent and proper address shall be displayed in accordance with the requirements of Number 2 above.
- B. No building permit shall be issued for any principle building located outside the incorporated limits of any municipality until the owner or developer has procured from the Brookings County Zoning Officer the official address of the premises.

4. Penalties

In the event that the owner or occupant or person in charge of any house or building refuses to comply with the terms of this ordinance by failing to affix the address assigned within sixty (60) days after notification of the assigned address, or passage of this ordinance, or fails to remove any old addresses affixed to such a structure or primary driveway or elsewhere which may be confused with the address assigned thereto within the sixty (60) days period, that individual shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) per day and/or one day in jail for each day that the situation is not rectified.

5. Effective Date

This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force and effect thirty (30) days after its passage.

All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict therewith are hereby repealed.
